

RSB NORTH-WESTERN BRANCH

Online Talks Programme for 2021

ECHINODERMS: Dr Mark Woombs

Wednesday April 14th 7pm

Echinoderms are the spiny-skinned animals of the sea, they include the starfish, brittlestars, featherstars, sea urchins and sea cucumbers. Echinoderms are complex creatures with no heart or blood, they can regenerate their limbs and have tiny feet all over their arms!

<http://www.rsb.org.uk/events?event=3249>

FUTURE TALKS

Tuesday May 4th 7pm: Coral Reefs of Australia

by Deborah Burn

Tuesday July 6th 7pm: The Birds of Chernobyl

by Helen Whiteside

Tuesday September 7th 7pm: African Life

by Michael Clapham

Tuesday October 5th 7pm: The Honey Bee

by Janet Preece

All talks are 30-40 minutes long on RSB Zoom and require registration via RSB events page prior to the date.

Further details from Elisabeth Green, secretary N-W elisathallouis@hotmail.co.uk

